Knoxville: The Next Generation

The much awaited sequel to Knoxville Through Five Generations has just been released for sale. The material was selected and compiled by the same committee that authored the first book , Knoxville Through Five Generations: Rose Burgess, Sally Hutchcroft, Frances Sanford and Dr. Margaret Young. This new work covers the period in Knoxville’s history beginning with the celebration of the Sesquicentennial in 1981 and running through the Terquasquicentennial of 2006. The book is 140 pages in length and includes many color photographs.

The publication was sponsored as a joint endeavor of the City of Knoxville and the Knox County Historical Sites, Inc. in honor of the 175th anniversary of the founding of the town. The community is deeply indebted to the book committee- Rose, Sally, Frances and Margaret- for the many hours spent this past year on this project.

The book sells for $25 and is available at Knoxville City Hall and Knoxville Public Library.

Mail orders should include $5.00 per copy for shipping and handling. Contact City Hall by telephone 309 289-2814; by mail at City of Knoxville, 33 Public Square; or by email info@kville.org
